

A large, vibrant sunflower with orange and red petals dominates the foreground. Three bees are visible on the dark, textured center of the flower. In the background, a red barn with white trim and a blue sky with light clouds are visible. The scene is set in a field of sunflowers.

“As I have come to understand, some people resemble the honeybee and some resemble the fly. Those who resemble the fly seek to find evil in every circumstance and are preoccupied with it; they see no good anywhere. But those who resemble the honeybee only see the good in everything they see. The stupid person thinks stupidly and takes everything in the wrong way, whereas the person who has good thoughts, no matter what he sees, no matter what you tell him, maintains a positive and good thought.”
